CROIX DE BEAUREGARD

FRANCE

POMEROL 2019

The History

It was in the middle of the 18th century that Beauregard changed from a mixed farming estate to a vine-growing property. Decade after decade, successive owners contributed to its development and towards its rank as one of the best wines in Pomerol.

The Grape

570% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Franc

Tasting Note

Croix de Beauregard 2019 is a wine that we really liked, a gourmet and generous. Pomerol for immediate pleasure. The wine is balanced with silky tannins, a nice freshness and crunchy fruits. To the eye, the dress is an intense red color with purple reflections. On the nose, black fruits emerge, blackcurrant, cherry, then woody and vanilla notes. On the palate, the attack is frank, very fruity, associated with a nice freshness then a nice harmonious length.
