The History

"As a winemaker, my job is to bring out the best qualities that the vines have provided. I don't seek to make a style of wine but more so to make wine that sings of it's place, it's history and it's uniqueness. That's my goal as a winemaker, to make wines that are pure expressions of their environment and not mask it. Wines with an identity."

-- Winemaker Julien Fayard

To produce the highest quality wines, the origin of quality expressed through the vineyards, the fruit and very production practices determine a good wine from a great wine. We wanted to create the highest quality wines representative of our two cultures, French & American.

Emphasis on vineyard selection, farming and fruit maturity is key.

The Grape

Grenache and Syrah Blend

Tasting Note

The wine greets you with a delicate nose which hints at strawberry, white peach, and golden raspberry.

The very first sip shows the finesse of this wine.
