Moillard Pouilly Fuisse

Chardonnay

The History

Moillard winery, the tradition of growing the best grapes and making the finest wines has been maintained. The Moillard family has been cultivating vines in Nuits -Saint-Georges since the French Revolution. In 2008, Vincent Sauvestre succeeded the Thomas family in running the Maison Moillard and perpetuating its prestigious reputation as one of the finest winemakers in Burgundy.

Located in the south of the Maconnais, the vineyards of Pouilly-Fuissé occupy the slopes and the base of the rocks of Solutré and Vergisson. They span over four villages: Solutré-Pouilly Fuissé, Vergisson and Chaintré.

The grape

100% Chardonnay (aged in stainless steel tanks).

Tasting note

A golden colour with green highlights. Ripe aromas of pear and candied lemon that blends beautifully with nuts, brioche and woody notes. Freshness on the attack. The finish is rich and long, mineral and saline. This great white wine of Burgundy is typical, with character.

Food Pairing

Prawns, lobster, crawfish, white meats such as veal or poultry in cream sauce, goat cheeses. Great partner with spicy dishes and Sushi.
