DOMAINE DE BEL AIR—BROUILLY

“BRIANTE”

BEAUJOLAIS

GAMAY

The History

Domaine de Bel-Air has been overlooking Beaujeu, the historic capital of the Beaujolais region, since 1840.

The vineyards are on the fully south facing slopes of Bel Air, where the terroir is made up of blue granite. This gives superb fruity and generous Gamay wines

The Grape

100% Gamay

Tasting Note

This famous cuvee gives aromatic wine, where plum, cherry and kirsch rub shoulders. The palate is long. The tannins are refined and there is great freshness at the finish.

Perfect with chicken in cream sauce, andouillette, or braised cushion of veal.
