CLOS LES PAULILLES WHITE

COLLIOURE

Wine Advocate R.Parker 2015 : 90/100

The History

Located in the Cove of Paulilles "Grand Site de France", Les Clos de Paulilles, symbolic estate between Collioure and Banyuls, whose quality of wine is recognized all over the world, extends over 100 hectares of valleys and schistous terraces among with 65 hectares planted in vines. Its totally renewed cellar, its site of reception and its restaurant on the beach constitute a magic place dedicated to Wine Tourism.

Terroir Vines on schistose terraces and/or slopes, worked by hand. Goblet pruning. Mediterranean climate (warm and dry), very windy with a maritime influence (Cove of Paulilles). Age of the vines: 35 years-old. Yields: 15hl/ha.

Winemaking Harvested by hand early in the morning to preserve all the aromas and first sorting to keep the best grapes. The alcoholic fermentation is done in barrels (< 5 %), in "eggs" tank and in steel tank. Alcohol level: 14 % Alc/Vol.

Ageing Bottled in the early spring and stored in air-conditioned cellars

The Grape

White Grenache, Grey Grenache.

Tasting Note

This refreshing, mineral and fine white presents delicate aromas of white flowers, grapefruit and ripe pear.

Great with Mediterranean fishes, seafood risotto, scallops citrus, fined cheeses such as Cantal.
