CHATEAU LIVERSAN

Bordeaux

HAUT MEDOC

The History

Chateau Liversan is located in the heart of the Haut-Médoc region, where the crème de la crème of Bordeaux is found. To give you an idea of the quality of the terroir in which Liversan is located, just over 3 miles away, are you can find its First Growths classified neighbors, Château Mouton Rothschild, and Château Lafite Rothschild. 2018 Chateau Liversan Haut-Medoc is a wine that comes from an impressive terroir and powerful soils, and best of all: At an unbeatable price! .

The grape

50% Merlot, 44% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Cabernet Franc, 2% Petit Verdot

Tasting note

The wine is black in color, with aromas of black fruit. Tannins are delicate and silky smooth with wonderful concentration. A well-structured and very elegant wine. Pair this wine with game, lamb, or veal.
