MADAME VEUVE POINT

VOLNAY

BURGUNDY

CLOS DES CHENES

The History

Madame Veuve Point is the unique story of a woman winemaker whose Pouilly-Fuissé won the Grand Prize at the Saint Louis world's fair, in the USA in 1904. Today, Géraldine Point has picked up the torch from her great-great-grandmother and will guide you to discover all the diversity of Burgundy with over 30 AOP wines mainly from the most famous Villages.

Tasting Note

Volnay “1er cru” clos des Chenes is admired for its delicacy, its sap, and its bouquet, it has always been thought of as the most feminine of Bourgogne wines. It might also come from its ruby color, like the lipstick imprint of a kiss. The nose reveals a generous wine. Its aromas are violet, gooseberry, cherry. This Volnay offers a powerful yet elegant wine finishing with tight tannins
